Louie Mack Award

Fayette County Democratic Party • Brenda McClanahan, Chairperson
P.O. Box 1486 • Lexington, Kentucky 40588 • (859) 268-4448 •

Past Recipients

P. Branden Gross (2008)
Nathan Dickerson (2007)

The Louie Mack Award, established in 2007, is presented annually in recognition of inspirational contributions by a Fayette County Democrat between 18 and 35 years old. The Mack Award specifically recognizes exceptional contributions such as dedication, determination, leadership potential, talent, and vision. Nominees should be highly respected by their peers, demonstrate sound ethical and moral standards, and, having been so recognized and nominated, will be inspired to remain active in the Democratic Party.

Nominator: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

E-mail: _____

Nominee's Name: _____

Record upon which this nomination is based (Please include up to one extra sheet of letter-size paper if more space is needed):

a. Describe your nominee's scope of responsibility within and service to the Democratic party (whether local, state or national) (34 points):

b. Describe how your nominee's creativity, inititive, and enthusiasm has impacted the Democratic party (whether local, state or national) (33 points):

c. Describe the scope of your nominee's personal determination, dedication and dependability to the to Democratic Party (whether local, state or national) and how that has advanced the agenda of the Democratic Party (33 points):

I hereby certify the truth and accuracy of the information in this nomination form and authorize the Fayette County Democratic Party to use the same to promote the Steve Banahan, Sr. Award.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Please mail completed form to the attention of the selection committee at the address set forth above prior to February 17, 2010, at noon. Please visit for the official rules.

IT'S YOUR PARTY
FAYETTEDEMOCRATS.ORG